

The Ohio Advantage Program

The Ohio Advantage Program (OAP) will provide a number of incentive based programs for Ohio's disadvantaged. Through OAP comprehensive financial rehabilitation programs, OAP will help disadvantaged Ohioans recover their lost sense of responsibility and assuage the social economic inequality in this state. The Ohio Advantage Program has formulated a number of financially structured programs geared to promote self-sufficiency and to aid our clients take the necessary measured steps towards acquiring financial security. OAP believes that instead of asking: Why so many people are poor? The real question is how do so many people escape from poverty?
